

The Florida House Institute Presents:
WHAT IS THE ROLE OF SCIENCE IN GOVERNMENT?
Florida District 72 Candidates for House of Representatives

Margaret Good (Democrat) • Alison Foxall (Libertarian) • James Buchanan (Republican)

Come to a free public forum and hear the candidates for Florida District 72 explain their views on the role of science in government, for instance in developing policies and laws in areas such as environmental protection, land use planning and education.

- Is “science denial” leading America down the wrong path?
- How much weight should science be given in our country’s economic, social and moral landscape?

Join the candidates for State Representative of Florida House District 72 for a discussion of Science in Government. (Limited seating available.)

Candidates Forum
6 pm Saturday Feb 3rd
Florida House Institute
4454 Beneva Road, Sarasota

For more information write charles@reithenergy.com

The Florida House institute is dedicated to advancing science and sustainability in education, governance, design and community. Visit us at FloridahouseInstitute.org on the web or tour our sustainable demonstration residence at 4454 Beneva Road, Sarasota, FL 34233

